

SECTION 6 - INTERPRETATION
(Amended July 20, 1992, effective August 20, 1992)

6.1 In interpretation and application, the provisions of this Resolution shall be held to the minimum requirements adopted for the promotion of public health, safety, morals, comfort and general welfare.

6.2 Nothing herein shall repeal, abrogate, annul or in any way impair or interfere with any provision of law or any rules or regulations, other than zoning regulations, adopted or issued pursuant to law relating to the construction and use of buildings or premises.

6.3 Where this Resolution imposes a greater restriction upon the use of buildings or premises or upon the height of buildings or requires larger yards than are imposed or required by other provisions of law, rules, regulations, covenants or agreements, the provisions of this Resolution shall control, but nothing herein shall interfere with, abrogate or annul any easements, covenants, deed restrictions or agreements between parties which impose restrictions greater than those imposed by this Resolution

6.4 Each section, sub-section, provision, requirement, regulation or restriction established by this Resolution or any amendment thereto, is hereby declared to be independent. Should any section, subsection, provision, requirement, regulation or restriction be declared by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the Resolution as a whole or any part thereof other than the part so declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.
